Celebration of Life

LOVE

If I speak human or angelic languages
but do not have love,
I am a sounding gong or a clanging cymbal.
If I have the gift of prophecy
and understand all mysteries
and all knowledge,
and if I have all faith
so that I can move mountains
but do not have love, I am nothing.
And if I donate all my goods to feed the poor,
and if I give my body in order to boast
but do not have love, I gain nothing.
Love is patient, love is kind.
Love does not envy,
is not boastful, is not conceited,
does not act improperly,
is not selfish, is not provoked,
and does not keep a record of wrongs.
Love finds no joy in unrighteousness
but rejoices in the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never ends.

Steven LeRoy Standley

June 7, 1962 –
March 14, 2018

Steven LeRoy Standley was born on June 7, 1962 in Tacoma to Marvin and Sadako Standley. He and his wife were taken up to Heaven on March 14, 2018. Steve was a devoted husband and a loving and caring father and brother. Steve married his wife, Terri, in 1991. They met when they both worked for Boeing, and were drawn to each other by Terri's love for the Japanese culture and Steve's Japanese heritage. Steve and Terri had two boys, Sean and Jared, whom they loved unconditionally.

Steve grew up in Olympia, Washington for most of his childhood, graduating from Timberline High School in Lacey, Washington in 1981. Steve went on to get a bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Washington State University and a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Saint Martin's University. Steve was employed with the City of Tacoma for over 25 years, most recently as the Environmental Services Division Manager. Steve had an infectious smile, a positive outlook in everything life brings, and he always put others' needs before his. He loved the outdoors; as a child he spent time with his dad hunting and fishing, and continued the tradition in his adult years with his boys and friends. One of Steve's many talents was carpentry, which he used to build his family home. He loved to ride his bike, and participated in events such as the STP ride.

Steve will be forever loved and remembered by his family and friends. He is survived by his son Sean Standley, from Buckley, WA; mother Sadako Standley, from Olympia, WA; sister Patricia Kohler (Dave) of Olympia, WA, and nephew and nieces. He was preceded in death by his father, Marvin L. Standley.

She began her career in finance at Boeing, where she met Steve, and they married in 1991. Terri left Boeing and began her own accounting business, so she could work from home while home-schooling their two boys, Sean and Jared.
